BEHAVIORAL ANALYSIS TRAINING GROUP

10,000
TRAINED
SINCE 2009

PERSONALITY PROFILING AND ADVANCED QUESTIONING TECHNIQUES

This advanced program explores the science and psychology of information extraction through refined elicitation and behavioral profiling strategies. Designed for law enforcement professionals, this course teaches how to use subtle questioning methods to reveal concealed information, assess credibility, and identify behavioral patterns. Participants will learn to interpret both verbal and nonverbal responses, detect deception, and adapt their approach based on personality and motivation profiles. By integrating psychological insight with practical application, officers will enhance their effectiveness in interviews, interrogations, intelligence gathering, and informant management—developing a professional edge in every conversation that matters.
